DEDICATION

MRS. LORRAINE R. BUCHWALD

We, the Echo staff of 1966, very proudly dedicate this yearbook to Lorraine R. Buchwald, our school secretary. Throughout the years, Mrs. Buchwald has always taken an interest in our interests. She comforted us as sick third graders; she patched our knees when we fell on the playground; she helped us with a tough math problem; she laughed at our jokes. Even more important to us, Mrs. Buchwald has been our "mother away from home." She is someone to confide in, someone who cares.

Although we leave B.H.S. this year, we will always remember Mrs. Buchwald, the wonderful woman who has been more to us than just our secretary—she has been our friend.

INTRODUCTION

The theme of the 1965-1966 Echo chosen by the yearbook staff is "The Wonderful World of B.H.S." With this theme we hope to illustrate how the "Territory of Administration", the "Empire of Academics", the "Commonwealth of Classes", the "Kingdom of Activities", the "Dominion of Sports", and the "Realm of Memories" all work together to make our "Wonderful World" complete.

ADMINISTRATION

The administrators are important in our world

JOSEPH HURLEY
Assistant Superintendent
Berlin - Milan Schools

Merger of Berlin Local School and Milan School

As of July, 1965, Berlin Local and Milan Schools merged to form the Berlin-Milan School District.

Merging of the two districts became necessary to meet the 500 high school enrollment figure recommended by the State Department of Education. It was also advised in order to continue to provide a wide program of studies within reasonable costs.

The Milan School was over-crowded; Berlin was expected to face the same problem soon.

After getting the results of a University of Toledo study which recommended the merger, the county board voted that Berlin and Milan merge.

Since there were no objecting petitions made, it became a fact July 28, 1965.

The next action of the county board was to elect a new board for the Berlin-Milan district. The board has full jurisdiction over both schools.

The election in November led to the selecting of Herbert Schlessman, president; Frank Garwood, vice-president; J. R. Wallrabenstein, clerk; Elton Green, Robert Stein, and Dr. William P. Williams, as the new Board of Education.

The Erie County Superintendent is Dr. William E. Weagly; Charles J. Lindecamp is Local Superintendent; Joseph E. Hurley, Assistant Local Superintendent; and Royden L. Garland, High School Principal.

Under the direction of Mr. Charles Garrett, the vocal department began the year by presenting a Thanksgiving program for the high school on November 24. The high school chorus, select chorus, and Berlinaires participated in the program.

In December, the vocal department set the spirit of the holiday season by participating in the Christmas Concert.

The spring concert, entitled "Lullaby of Spring," was presented on May 6, with music presented by the chorus, special chorus, Berlinaires, soloists, and the band.

Closing the year, the select chorus sang for the class service, and the senior chorus members sang for Commencement.

DRAMA CLUB

Sandy Gammie as the fair Antoinette and Pat Whidden as Jonathan perform in Once Upon a Time.

The Drama Club began its second year in Berlin Local School with Mary Vartorella again serving as president.

Highlighting the year was the children's play, "Once Upon a Time," a parody on all fairy tales, which went on tour during the week of January 10 — 15. The tour included North Fairfield, Greenwich, Milan, and Mapleton.

Drama Club members again participated in the Prince of Peace and Voice of Democracy Contests. Sandy Gammie represented Berlin at the district Prince of Peace Contest and Pat Whidden won the local Voice of Democracy contest.

Members of the club also participated in contests in Bowling Green, Vermilion, Perkins, and Midview. Representing Berlin Local School in debate were Mary Vartorella and Sharon Lorton, affirmative, and Diane Williams and Sandy Gammie, negative.

On Awards' Day the Drama Club presented trophies to the Best Actor and Actress, as well as the best male and female performers in supporting roles.

Patty Nickols as Aunt Sigrid, and Sharon Lorton as Aunt Trina, look on as Carol Huttenlocher as Aunt Jenny makes an important call.

The Senior class presented "I Remember Mama", directed by Gary Kaltenbach on November 19th and 20th. The play, written by John Van Druten, depicted the life of a Norwegian family in America. Cast members included Sandy Gammie as Katrin, Mary Vartorella as Mama, Mike Bobryk as Papa, Diane Williams as Dagmar, Patty Ritz as Christine, Perry Wallace as Mr. Hyde, Tim Tillinghast as Nels, Sharon Lorton as Aunt Trina.

Also in the play were Pat Nickols as Aunt Sigrid, Carol Huttenlocher as Aunt Jenny, Rick Hillis as Uncle Chris, Cheryl Gillard as the woman, Dan Jenkins as Mr. Thorkleson, Art Wright as Dr. Johnson, Tommy Sanders as Arne, Susan Bruns as a nurse, Neva Leffel as another nurse, Larry Kellar as a soda clerk, Shilda Castle as Madeline, Darla Jarret as Dorothy, Jan Jones as Florence Dana Moorhead, and Steve Puder as the bellboy.

Sandy Gammie as Katrin narrated the play.

Howard Hill as Brad Allen, tries to persuade Sue Reising as Jan Morrow to be his wife while Bob Schuster, loser in the love triangle, looks on.

On April 15 and 16 the junior class of Berlin High School presented "Pillow Talk" in three acts, adapted from the screenplay by Stanley Shapiro and Maurice Richlen.

The plot evolved around a situation comedy involving a music composer and an interior decorator over the use of a party line. "Pillow Talk" is almost all comedy with few tender or serious moments.

The leads in the play were portrayed by Howard Hill who played Bradley Allen, a music composer, and "ladies man," and Sue Reising who played Jan Morrow, an attractive interior decorator.

The play was directed by Gary Kaltenbach who says of the play, "All in all, the play accomplished its task of amusing the viewer."

At the time of the play's first running, it successfully completed a time at Radio City.

Sitting: Louise Keller, Bob Schuster, Lois Salmons, Sue Reising, Wendy Unger, Howard Hill, Jeff Green. FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

F.F.A. officers elected in March are Steve Kastor, secretary; Bob Schuster, treasurer; John Battles, student adviser; Steve Smith, president; David Sexton, vice-president; Ed Cordle, reporter; and Bruce Fleming, sentinel.

The Future Farmers of America participated in many activities this year. During the month of October, F.F.A. members Bill Deehr and Steve Smith attended the National F.F.A. Convention in Kansas City.

Money-making projects included the sale of slow-moving vehicle signs and the annual Christmas tree sale. This year's Christmas tree sale broke all records.

The Berlin Local chapter placed third in the Parliamentary Procedure contest held in December.

In March, the club was visited by Kirby Barrick, the state president, and the State Supervisor of Education. Also during the month of March, national speaker Henry Shriver spoke at the annual F.F.A. banquet.

Officers serving until March were Steve Smith, Rich Hillis, Bob Schuster, Dave Sexton, Bob Malone, Henry Tittle, and Terry O'Rork. New officers elected in March were Steve Smith, Dave Sexton, Steve Kastor, Bob Schuster, John Battle, Ed Cordle, and Bruce Fleming.

This year, the Echo is in its eighteenth year of publication. The theme chosen for this year's book is "The Wonderful World of Berlin Local School," showing the member "nations" of Berlin's "Wonderful World."

As an added feature, the 1966 yearbook includes an additional twelve pages.

The Echo staff is advised by Miss Sophia Purcell and headed by Editor Kathy Schneider and assistant editor Carol Huttenlocher.

Several members of the staff took part in yearbook workshops throughout the year. These took place at Ohio Northern University and Ohio State University.

SPORTS

1965—1966 Sports Story

In the eventful sports year of 1965-1966, Berlin Tiger fans witnessed many exciting moments from the opening kick-off of the football season to the last pitch of the baseball season.

Carroll Sander's gridmen put together a fine season by capturing the Firelands Conference Football Championship. Their overall record was 7-1-1. That one loss, however, was accounted by just one bad play — it gave Green Springs a two-point safety, all they needed to whip Berlin. The high points of the season were the last two games when the Orange and Black took revenge by blasting Milan and South Central. These two teams had cost Berlin the championship just a year before.

Throughout basketball season, many had visions of a second championship. They were not far wrong. The Berlin hoopsters got off to a shaky start by dropping two straight conference contests, but came on strong to win the next seven in a row to log an 8-2 record in the Firelands Conference and a 13-5 over-all standing. They finished second in the conference behind Hillsdale. The two stand-out games were the win over Hillsdale and the game which saw the Tigers snatch a last minute victory over Western Reserve with only three men on the court.

Wrestling, under the direction of Jim Wittibslager, was added to the sports agenda at B.H.S. this year. The words of Coach Wittibslager best described the team. "These boys were willing to learn, so I taught and we won." Winning was not easy, though. Inexperienced wrestlers are often taken advantage of — so the boys resorted to "alley fighting". It worked.

When spring came the excitement of other championships being brought home reached its pitch. Both the track team and the baseball team looked promising, but, try as they might, each team fell before its foe when the big test came. The track squad had its ups and downs all season, being plagued by injuries. The baseball team had a fine season, their best in six years. Toward the end of the year, however, they couldn't win the big ones.

Down in the Junior High Kitten den there was some mighty big roaring. They had some fine teams and wanted everyone to know it. The eighth grade basketball team won the invitational tournament and the young thinclads showed real power. Some future Tiger hopefuls are Jeff Kernell, Bruce Wright, and George Bryant.

It was a sad day at Berlin when Coach C. B. "Snag" Sanders announced his retirement from the coaching ranks. Coach Sanders had guided Tiger teams for fifteen years. He instilled genuine spirit into all of his players. Nobody will forget him and all will miss him. All the athletes whom he has coached and helped want to say, "Thanks, Coach, we appreciate it."

The Hungry Tiger Award

This helmet shows what a "hungry tiger" star looks like. A star is awarded to a player for outstanding defensive play, such as 15 tackles, intercepted passes, blocked punts, and other exceptional deeds. The player with the most stars at the end of the season wins the "Hungry Tiger" Trophy.

1965-66 FOOTBALL TEAM

Fourth row: Jess Hintz, Kelly Shook, Claude Mullins, Rich Hensley, manager; Joel Poyer, manager. Absent from picture, Fred Wallace.

The 1965 Berlin Tigers fielded the best football team since 1958, compiling a 7-1-1 overall mark and a 6-0-1 league log, to capture the Firelands Conference Championship.

The road to glory was not an easy one, for the Tigers were faced with many injuries. However, the determination and drive that champions are made of were evident in the players, as they moved to the top.

As far as statistics go, hard-running fullback, Terry Gornek, set the pace in scoring and yardage gained by rushing. He carried 128 times for 655 yards and 62 points. Ron Shook completed 36 of 58 passes for 421 yards and seven touchdowns. Ron's favorite target was senior end, Perry Wallace, who caught 12 passes for 138 yards and two touchdowns. On defense, sophomore Gib Hensley collected 71 tackles and nine stars to win the "Hungry Tiger" award. Ron Shook and Terry Gornek were chosen the two most valuable players.

At the end of the season many honors were bestowed upon the Tigers. Seven Berlin gridders were chosen for the all-conference team, along with three honorable mentions. The coach, C. B. Sanders, was selected as Firelands Conference Coach of the Year by his fellow coaches. Those players honored were: Perry Wallace, end; Norm Hills, tackle; Terry O'Rork, guard; Ron Shook, quarterback; Terry Gornek, fullback; Gib Hensley, inside linebacker; and Rich Hillis, defensive tackle. Receiving honorable mention were: Bob Malone, center; Ed Cordle, defensive end; and Jeff Green, safety.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Berlin Heights varsity fought their way to a fine 13-5 record during the 1965-66 basketball season to gain themselves second place in the Firelands Conference. This includes a skein of eleven straight victories.

Carroll Sanders' Tigers were led by 5'11" senior Ron Shook who popped in a total of 277 points for a 15.4 average. Shook also won the foul shooting award with a 57% clip from the charity stripe. He was backed up by 6'1" sophomore Gib Hensley who manned the backboards by collaring a total of 182 rebounds for a 10.0 average. Gib took up the scoring slack by tossing in an additional 252 points at a 14.0 average. These stalwarts were Berlin's representatives to the All-League team.

The Tigers, as a team, shot a respectable 36% from the field in scoring 1,104 total points and outscoring their opponents per game by a 61-58 count.

1965-66 RESERVE BASKETBALL TEAM

The Berlin Reserve basketball team battled throughout the 1965-66 campaign to record a 2-15 mark as Coach John Feyedelem's young Tigers slipped from an 8-10 record the previous season. The Tigers displayed a quick, deliberate attack with plenty of backboard strength, but the squad was "young and insufficiently experienced" in the words of Coach Feyedelem.

The Berlin quintet dropped their first four encounters before they emerged victorious, dumping Monroeville, 43-39. The Orange and Black again went on a victory famine for eight games before they could claim their second win of the season as they crushed Republic, 41-29.

Lauren Kamm, a scrappy 6'0" sophomore forward, paced all Berlin scorers with 112 points for the year. Junior Ron Morgan, a late addition to the team, followed with 103 markers in 11 games for a 9.5 average.

Berlin rebounding strength was manned by 6'7" sophomore giant Fred Wallace and teammate Kamm who each collared 106 rebounds. Sophomore Mike Eldridge clinched the foul shooting trophy with a 57% clip from the charity strip.

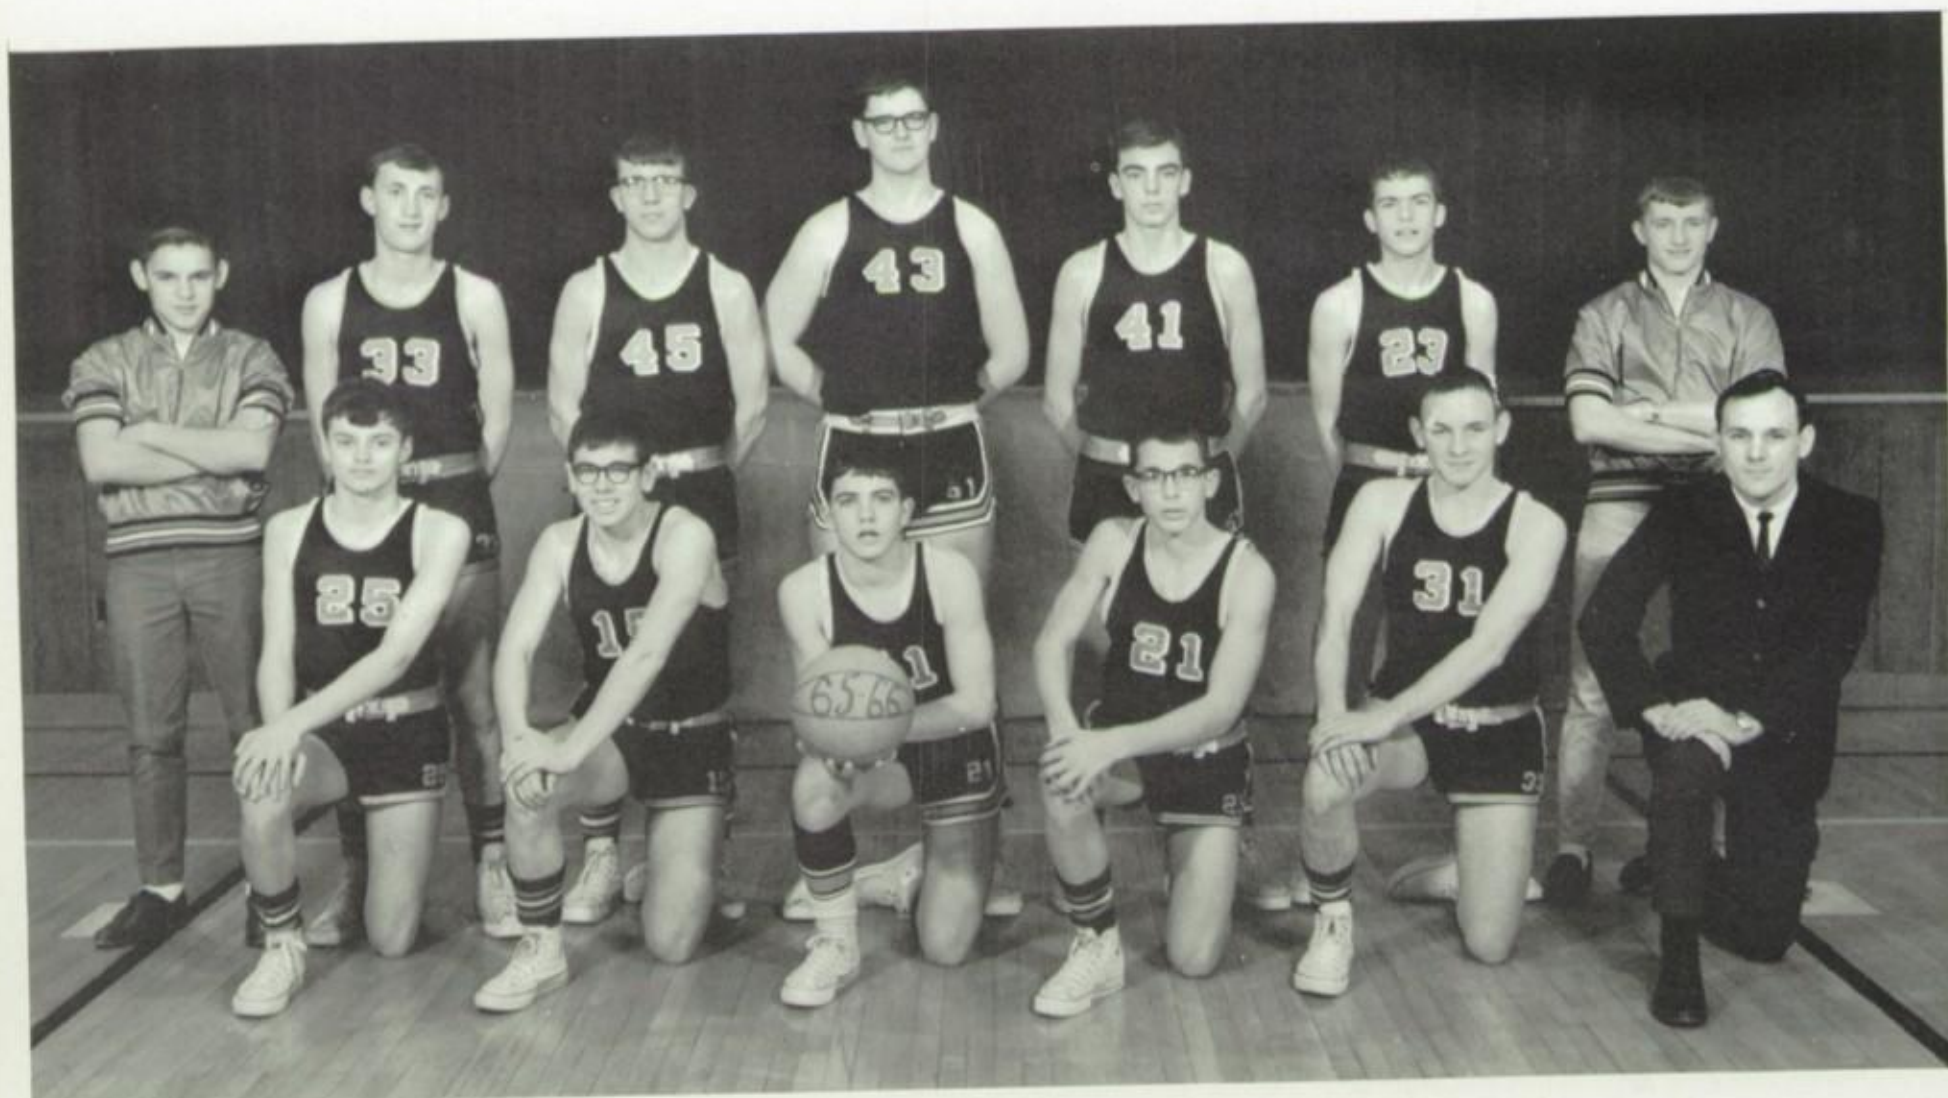

Tiger fans always saw close contests as Berlin averaged 35 points per game en route to a season production of 599 tallies. Opponents outscored the home town boys by 128 as they scored 727 points for a 42-point clip.

Second row: Duane Molnar, Ted Vartorella, Howard Hill, James Ellis, Terry O'Rork, Rick Hillis, James Wittibslager, coach.

In the initial season at Berlin, wrestling made a lasting impression. The Tiger grapplers, coached by Jim Wittibslager, battled to a glittering 7-1-1 record. The young Orangemen showed outstanding determination and a willingness to learn. A total of 13 boys earned their letters, and 10 of these will be returning next year to provide a strong nucleus.

The two outstanding wrestlers were Wendy Unger, fighting in the 120 pound class, and Larry Keller, a 155 pound competitor.

The Berlin Heights baseball team, with a 4-8 log this year, offered a season jammed with excitement. Ron Shook, with a 4-3 record, was the primary starting pitcher. Kelly Shook was the star hitter. He amassed a batting average of .340 in a close race for the trophy. The team had depth — one thing that had been lacking in previous years — and Coach Charles Hoffman says next year looks brighter. Of the twelve lettermen, nine will be returning.

Second Baseman Kelley Shook copped the hitting trophy with a .340 average.

The Berlin track team, coached by John Feyedelem, showed a real desire to win in the 1966 season. The team was loaded in the field events, but lacked the necessary strength in the running. They dropped their only dual meet and usually fared out second in tri-meets. The Tiger track team was represented at the Toledo Relays, Ashland Relays, Firelands Invitational, and Mansfield District.

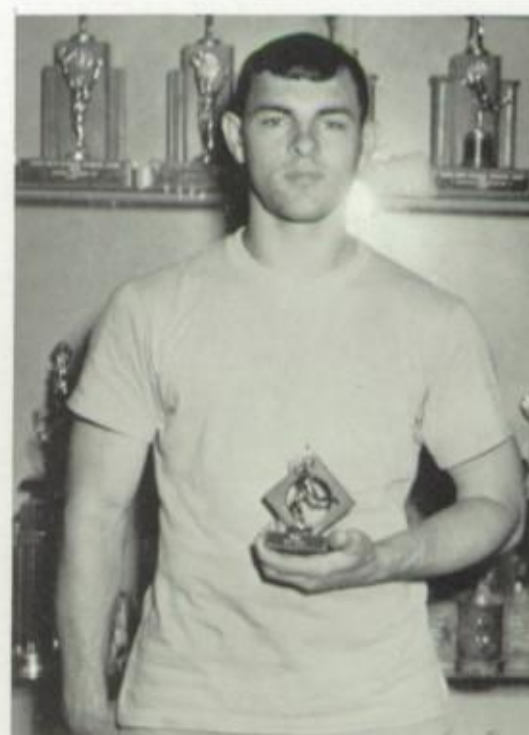

Ron Shook broke the discus record and came close to cracking the shot put and high jump marks. Berlin's distance trio of Bill Waldron, Perry Wallace, and Steve Puder were strong point getters. Other strong contenders were sprinter and high jumper Gib Hensley, hurdler and long jumper Mike Eldridge, and sprinter and long jumper Pat Whidden. The squad of twenty-five will lose only four seniors by graduation.

The Berlin Junior High Track squad scrapped their way to impress all onlookers. Mentor, Jim Wittibslager, was high on his young charges throughout the season.

The one standout on the team was eighth-grader Jeff Kernell. Kernell had the ability to compete in any event available; however, his talents were centered onto sprinting, high jumping, and long jumping. A future bright spot is George Bryant, a seventh-grader. This youngster showed fine competitive spirits in competing in the sprints and relays. Two other young Tigers added strength for the cause, Bruce Wright and Ben Fleming. Wright was a weightman and sprinter while Fleming worked in the long jump and relays.

The team made appearances at the South Amherst Invitational and the Firelands Conference Meet along with duals against Milan and South Central.

Besides being coached by Wittibslager, the High School thinclads aided the Junior High Schoolers in their various events. Determination was the main factor in the team's success, along with pride and a wanting to learn. This team should provide the High School track squad with some fine athletes in the next few years.

Others competing on the squad were Jon DeMuth, Robert Tittle, Bruce Braddock, Paul Soviak, John Ritz, Barry Fleming, Jim Carver, Mike Christman, George Kinnard, Bill Phillips, Tom Phillips, and Len Puder.

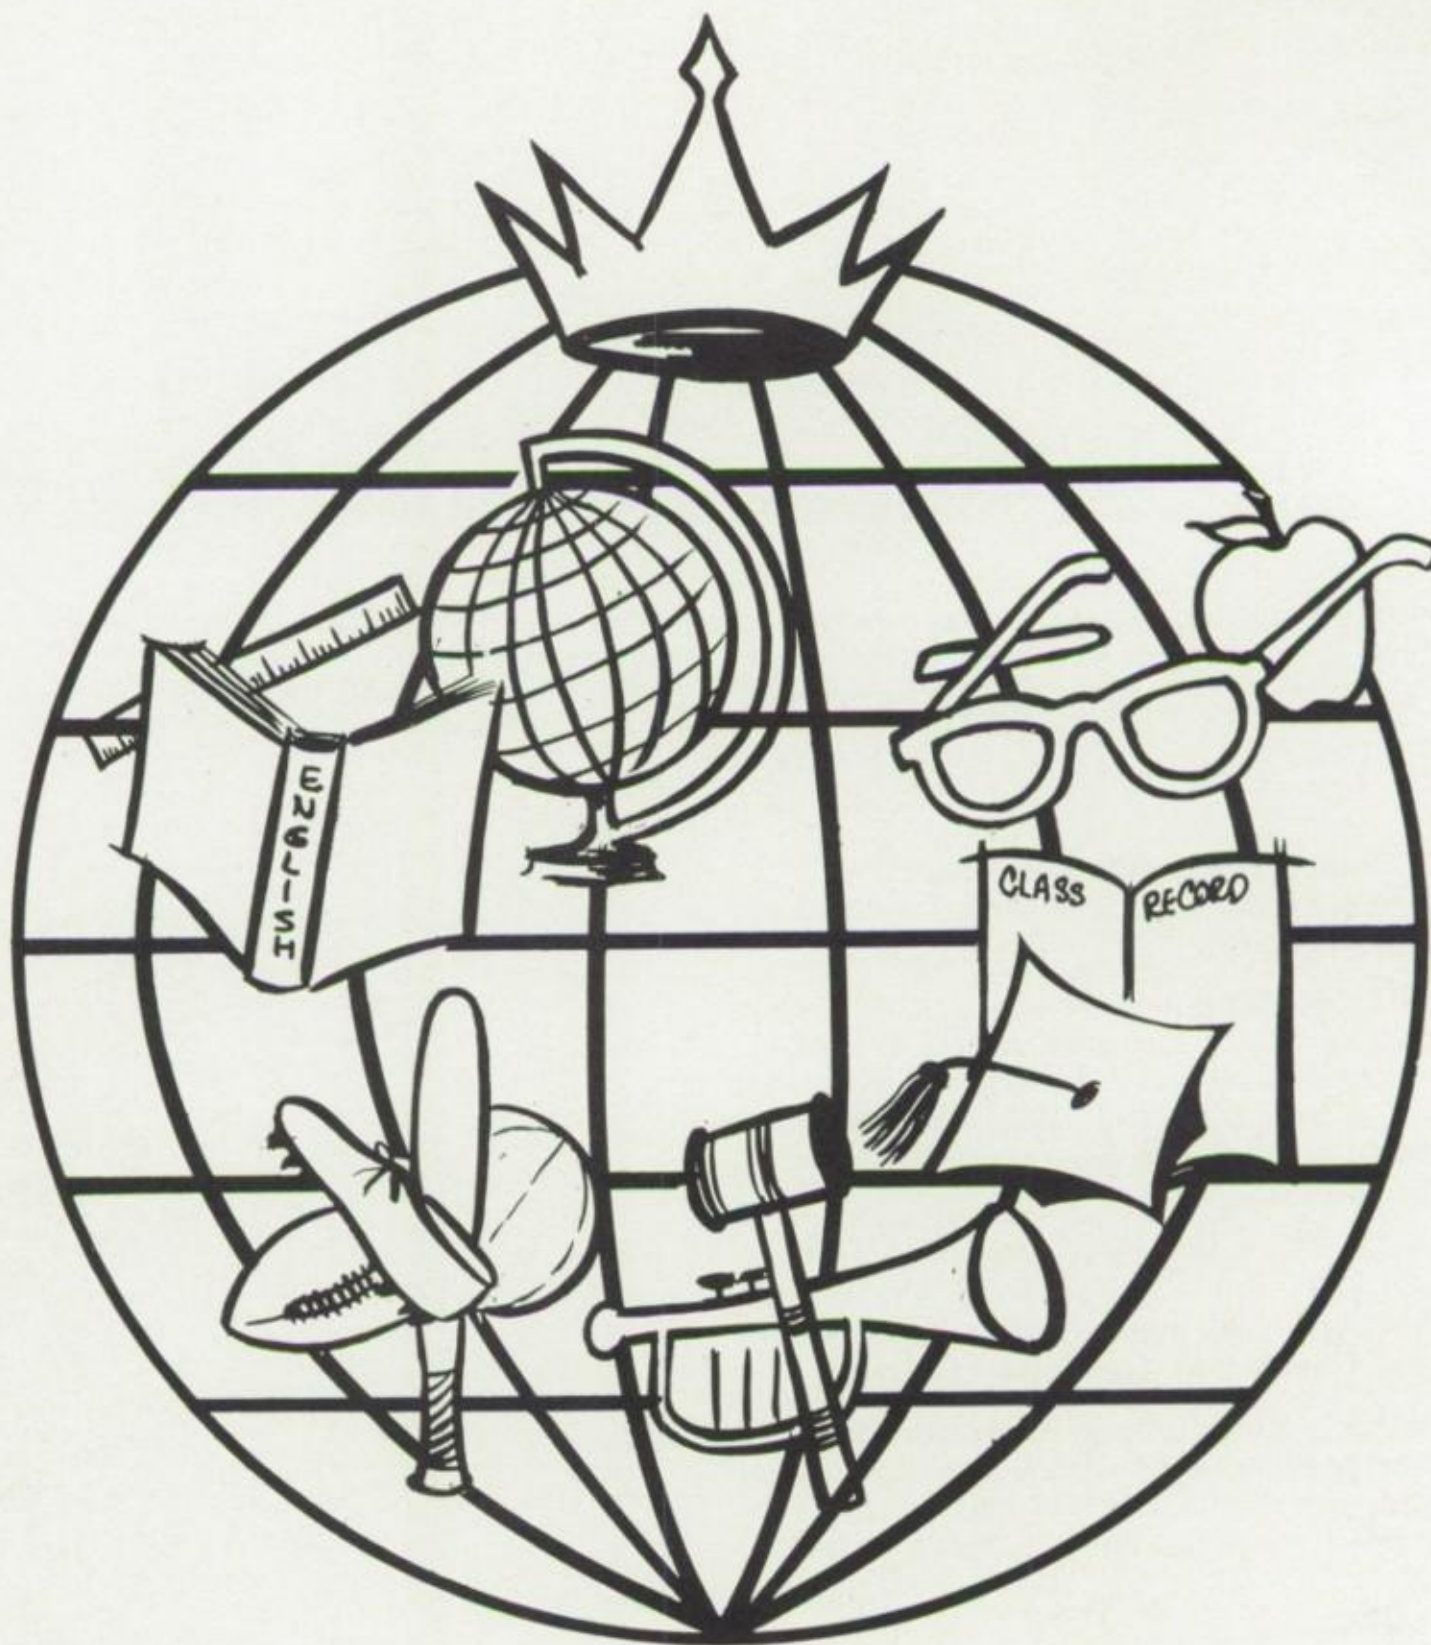

Jim Carver holds the lead for Berlin in the shuttle hurdles.

George "Junie" Bryant anchors the winning 440 relay team.

The 1965 homecoming activities began on Friday night, October 15, with a parade, followed by the traditional bonfire.

On Saturday starting at 1:00 p.m., there was a parade with the queen and her court, the band, and float entries from the four classes. Following the parade, Queen Patricia Ritz and her court were presented, and they reigned over the game which Berlin won 35-7.

At half time the winners of the float contest were announced. Sophomores with the theme "Defeat 'Em" won first place, juniors placed second; seniors, third; and freshmen, fourth.

Homecoming came to an end on Saturday night with a dance sponsored by the Student Council. At 10:00 p.m. the queen and her court were presented, and the traditional queen's dance followed.

the Arbor Day celebration

Cheryl Gillard presents the dedication speech for the senior tree.

The annual Arbor Day Program, sponsored by the Berlin Heights Garden Club for the senior class, was held April 15, 1966.

The program began in the auditorium, where Dave Wasem read the Governor's Arbor Day proclamation, and Pat Whidden presented the winning speech on conservation, "Beauty is Truth," by Bill Vartorella. Following this, the Berlinaires sang two selections, and the film strip, "Our Ohio Heritage," was shown.

Immediately following the film, the seniors and freshman class officers gathered outside with the Garden Club for the presentation of a tree to the freshman class president, Stu Taylor, by Mrs. David Gilchrist, and the dedication of the senior class tree by Cheryl Gillard.

According to tradition, a jar containing the names of all the seniors was buried near the tree and an engraved stone with the year was placed on top.

At the conclusion of the program, there was a reception in the home economics room, sponsored by the women of the Garden Club.

Prom night began for the juniors and seniors with a banquet. The dinner, including Game of the Jungle, Diced Bamboo, and Green Papas, was served by Polynesian waiters and waitresses which helped to carry out the theme, "Kon-Tiki". Following the dinner Tim Tillinghast read the history, Pat Whidden gave the will, and Jeff Green delivered the prophesy. Norm Hills singing "Without a Song" and Renee Fortson singing "The Wonderful World of the Young" added to the pleasure of the evening.

A fiery volcano and a grass hut created the Polynesian atmosphere for the dance while the charm of the setting was complemented by ferns, palm trees, tiki gods, and a hand-hewn canoe.

The entrance to the prom, featuring a hand-hewn canoe, added to the Polynesian atmosphere.

Royden Garland, principal, presented the class to the Board of Education and President, Herbert Schlessman presented the diplomas.

Fifty-four seniors received their diplomas Sunday night, June 2, at the school's 72nd Commencement exercise.

The Berlin Local Band, under the direction of Charles Garrett, provided the processional and recessional marches. Reverend Ed Lopeman gave the benediction.

Henry Shriver, noted farmer-philosopher, spoke on "It's a Point of View," noting the successes and failures the graduates would meet in later life.

He pointed out that everyone has a talent, if he will only look for it. If this talent is used to the fullest with trust in God, one would be happy.
